

TUITION AND FEES

\ Upon receipt of admission forms, Ventures in Peace will schedule a phone interview with prospective resident to assess immediate appropriateness for enrollment. This interview is free of charge. Assessment will then continue with a three-day, on-site, interview to determine further appropriateness.*

Interview fee will be deducted from first month's tuition if applicant is accepted in the program and if the interview is conducted during the same month of enrollment.

Interview Fee: $500-$800

$500 includes room, meals, and programming for a three-day interview

$300 additional fee if Ventures in Peace provides transportation to and from Spokane International Airport (no additional fee if Ventures in Peace provides transportation to and from Missoula Airport)

Tuition: $5,000 per month

Ventures in Peace's tuition is based on operating costs and services provided. The cost is similar to that of a small, private college. Tuition covers room, meals, and program services. You may choose the payment option that works best for you (see below).

Resident Account Fees: Variable

This account is managed by Ventures in Peace staff and covers items such as off-site meals, special events, ski passes and equipment rental, some college books and supplies, high school completion costs, special clothing needs, and repairs for any damage caused by the resident. These fees are drawn from a revolving account and is billed quarterly to maintain a balance of $1,200. Billing cycles are every three months. Accounting of all spending will be provided to the financial sponsor each quarter.

Additional Costs

Financial sponsors are also responsible for college application fees and tuition, airport and college transportation, special program events such as college tours and educational or personal development workshops outside of Ventures in Peace. Transportation costs are $25.00/hour between 8 AM and 8 PM and $50.00/hour, for after hours, between 8 PM and 8 AM

(Note: Ventures in Peace does not provide traditional therapeutic services. Should these services be required, the financial sponsor will contract them at their own expense).
